Thomas J. Bauer

Maj. Thomas J. Bauer, U.S. Air Force retired, age 71, of Shalimar, Fla., and formerly of Logansport, Ind., died Monday, April 9, 2001, at Eastside Medical Center in Snellville, Ga.

He was born on Aug. 5, 1929, in Logansport to Herman E. and Teresa Bauer.

Maj. Bauer was a pilot in Air-Sea Rescue Operations. He was a member of the Retired Air Force Association and American Legion. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Fort Walton Beach, Fla., and a 1947 graduate of Washington Township High School.

Survivors include his wife, Ilse Bauer; son and daughter-in-law, Charles and Marie Bauer of Paducah, Ky.; daughters and sons-in-law, Sylvia and Brad Moyer of Lilburn, and Sonja and Marcus Dalton of Washington, D.C.; brother and sister-in-law, Herman and Evelyn Bauer of Troutville, Va.; two sisters, Rosemary Bauer of Logansport, and Sister Loretta Bauer, SSND, of Huntington, Ind.; grandchildren, Austin, Paul, Ross, Grant, Joy and Peter; several nieces and nephews; and great-nieces and great-nephews.

He was preceded in death by brothers, Charles Bauer and Raymond Bauer.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Monday, April 16, at All Saints Catholic Church with Father Leo Haigerty officiating. Burial, with military honors, will be in Mount Calvary Cemetery in Logansport.

Visitation will take place from 3 to 7 p.m. Sunday, April 15, at Kroeger Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be made to All Saints Catholic School.

Kroeger Funeral Home in Logansport is in charge of arrangements.

Source: NW Fla Dailey News Publication Date: 4/12/2001