Charles R. 'Chuck' Johnson

MONTICELLO – Services for Charles R. "Chuck" Johnson, 68, Burnettsville, will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday in Church of Christ on Burlington Avenue in Logansport.

He died at 4:32 a.m. Thursday, March 13, 2008, in White County Memorial Hospital in Monticello. He was the son of John David "Davey" & Pauline (Kastor) Johnson and was born July 9, 1939. On July 2, 1961 at the Christian Church in Winamac, Indiana, he married Carol A. Klopfenstein. She survives.

Survivors besides his wife Carol include 2 daughters, Susan L. (husband Rich) Ziebart, of Hoopeston, Illinois and Shavon L. (husband Randy) Sermon, of Monticello; 2 brothers, George (wife Carol) Johnson, of Star City and Kenny (wife Becky) Johnson, of Fairborne, Ohio; 3 grandchildren, Drew Sermon, Stationed at the Hill Air Force Base, in Ogden, Utah, Jamie (husband Andy) Duckett, of Middletown, Pennsylvania, Lindsay and Brady Ziebart, both at home in Hoopeston, Illinois; his mother-in-law, Martha Stefaniak, of Monticello. One Great-Grandchild on the way and his dog, Gus.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Rose Helvie.

Chuck was a 1957 graduate of the Star City High School in Star City, Indiana. He had worked for the Twin Lakes School Corporation for over 15 years in the Maintenance Department. Chuck was member of the Church of Christ in Logansport, Indiana. He was a U.S. Army veteran, and was a Jack-of-All trades. Chuck loved old cars, woodworking, and mowing the yard. He enjoyed coffee at Kinser's Bakery and the Subway located in the Wal-Mart, both of Monticello, Indiana. Chuck always found time for his family, grandchildren, and his dog Gus. .

Jeff Strife and John Ragle will officiate at the services. Burial, with full military rites conducted by the White County Honor Guard (Monticello American Legion Post, AMVETS and VFW) will be in Davis Cemetery, rural Burnettsville.

Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. Saturday at Miller-Roscka Funeral Home and one hour before services Sunday at the church.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American ALS Association.
