Services for Edward B. Sadler, 90, of Logansport will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday in Fisher Funeral Chapel.

He died at 3:55 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 1, 2005, in Lutheran Hospital, Fort Wayne.

Born Feb. 24, 1915, in Fulton County, he was the son of Sidney R. and Kezia Ramsden Sadler. He was married Sept. 28, 1932, in Winamac, to Dorothy E. Grady, who survives. She was the love of his life, and they had been married for 73 years.

Mr. Sadler was retired as a conductor for the Penn Central Railroad. He had been a farmer, a real estate developer, and owned and operated Sadler Trout Pond.

He attended Miami Baptist Church and was a 65-year member of the Tipton Masonic Lodge #33.

He enjoyed fishing, traveling and reading. His favorite thing was wintering in Rio Grand Valley, Texas.

Also surviving are one son, Thomas P. Sadler and his wife, Jeri, Logansport; two daughters, Beverly Hines and her husband, Jim, Mexico, and Donna Fields, Harlingen, Texas; eight grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren; six great-great-grandchildren.

An infant daughter, one brother, one sister, one grandson and one granddaughter preceded in death.

The Rev. Jan Hobbs will officiate at the services. Burial will be in Ever-Rest Memorial Park.

Friends may call from 4 to 7 p.m. Saturday in the funeral chapel, where Masonic services will be held at 7 p.m.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Miami Baptist Church Building Fund.
