

Mrs. Bessie Crockett

GALVESTON — Mrs. Bessie Crockett, 83, Kokomo R.R. 3, died at 10 p.m. Friday at the St. Joseph Memorial Hospital Kokomo following an extended illness.

Born in Miami Feb. 13, 1886, she was the daughter of James and Clara Larimer.

She was married to Omer Crockett Jan. 31, 1915 and he preceded her in death in February of 1966.

She was a member of the War Mothers of Galveston.

Surviving are two sons, Robert, Kokomo R.R. 3 and Ralph, Kokomo; three sisters, Mrs. Iva Prather, Peru, Mrs.

Nellie Glanburn, Kokomo R.R. 3 and Mrs. Dorothy Burrows, Cassville; two brothers, Harry Larimer, Monticello and Jimmy Larimer, Portland, Ore., and four grandchildren. One son was killed in World War II.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Monday at the Thomas and Goodier Funeral Home, here, with the Rev. Verlin Kling officiating. Burial will be in the Galveston Cemetery.

Friends may call after 2 p.m. Sunday.