

PRINCESS IONE LYNAS

Mrs. Princess Ione Lynas, 71, Rt.1, Galveston, died at 6:30 a.m. Friday, March 3 at Memorial Hospital.

A lifetime resident of the Lincoln community, she was a member of the Lincoln Methodist Church.

Born Jan. 23, 1896, in Cass County, she was the daughter of Horatio and Ada Barnett Dye. She was married March 3, 1914 to Clarence Lynas, who survives.

Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. D. W. Hollingsworth, Rt. 4, two sisters, Miss Elmile Dye, Kokomo, and Mrs. Imogene Denny, Laffayette; a half sister, Mrs. Mala White, Midland, Mich.; four grand-daughters, Mrs. Eugene Hanawalt 324 Fairview Ave; Mrs. Joyce Fewell, Rt.4; Mrs, Gary Price, 2716 Sunset Lane, and Mrs. John Cottrell, Kokomo, and seven great-grandchildren.

A sister and three brothers preceded her in death.

Services were held were held Sunday with Frank Little officiating. Burial was in the Galveston Cemetery. (Galveston Leader, March 9, 1967, p. 11)

Source: Galveston Leader

Publication Date: 3/09/1967