

Paul Winslow

GALVESTON, Ind. — Paul F. "Shorty" Winslow, 79, 401 W. Washington St., died at 4:10 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 19, 1990, in Saint Joseph Hospital & Health Center in Kokomo.

He was born July 19, 1911, in Miami County, a son of Fred L. and Pearl (McClain) Winslow.

In 1936, he married Clara L. Riley, who died in 1978. In 1979, he married Carol Farley, who survives.

Winslow retired as a farmer after 45 years of service. He was a 50-year member of Walton Masonic Lodge 423 and a 25-year member of Walton Order of Eastern Star.

Also surviving are a son, Fred W. Winslow of Kokomo; two daughters, Carolyn Crabtree of Phoenix, Ariz., and Judy Deck of Roann; a brother, Raymond Winslow of Kokomo; two sisters, Ruth Woollet of Florida and Eva Tucker of Ohio; eight grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren. Two sisters and a great-grandson preceded him in death.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday in Ellers Mortuary in Kokomo. Burial will be in Galveston Cemetery. Friends may call from 2 to 8 p.m. Friday at the mortuary where a Masonic service will be conducted at 7:30 p.m.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: