

Betty L. Delp

Services for Betty L. Delp, 80, of Logansport, formerly of Sebring, Fla., will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday at Kroeger Funeral Home.

She died at 9:30 a.m. Monday, Nov. 15, 2004, in her residence.

Born April 6, 1924, in Logansport, she was the daughter of Donald C. and Maud M. Seramud Thomas. She was married July 4, 1953, in Logansport, to Richard Delp, who preceded in death March 8, 1997.

Betty retired in 1981 as a facility assignor from General Telephone Company.

She was a member of Main Street United Methodist Church, the American Legion Auxiliary in Logansport and in Lake Placid, Fla., and a life member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary Post #3790 in Logansport. She also belonged to the Dykeman Women's Golf Association.

While living in Sebring, Fla., she had been a member of the Sebring Golf and Country Club, Highlands County Women's Golf Association and Women's Sebring Golf Association.

Betty enjoyed playing golf, traveling, reading and spending time with her family, children, grandchildren, and great-granddaughter.

Surviving are three sons, Robert L. Paul and his wife, Kathy, Austin, Texas, W. Thomas Paul and his wife, Jane, Naperville, Ill., and James Delp, Logansport; one daughter, Elizabeth Russo and her husband, Jon A., Terre Haute; three grandsons; five granddaughters; five great-grandsons; four great-granddaughters; and one great-great-granddaughter; four sisters, Jeanne Raber, Surprise, Ariz., Donna M. Berry and Rosalie Klotz, both of Logansport, and Midge Ellis, Venice, Fla.; and a number of nieces and nephews.

The Rev. Keith R. Schreffler will officiate at the services. Burial will be in Mount Hope Cemetery.

Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. Wednesday and one hour before services Thursday in the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to Main Street United Methodist Church.
