

Neva Kruck Steinberger

Memorial services for Neva Kruck Steinberger, 98, of Florida, formerly of Logansport, will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday in St. James Lutheran Church.

She died at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 27, 2004, in Alterra Clarebridge Health Care Facility, Sarasota, Fla.

Born and raised in Logansport, she was the daughter of Henry and Emma Kruck. She met and later married Roger Steinberger, a North Madison resident, at Hanover College. They eventually returned to Logansport in 1945, where they resided until 1979, when they moved to Venice, Fla. Roger recently preceded in death Dec. 6, 2003, in Sarasota, Fla.

A graduate of Hanover College, Neva was able to speak and write in three languages. She taught in the old Washington Township School and others throughout Cass County.

Neva was the secretary and treasurer of Steinberger Construction Company, founded by her late husband, Roger, which, in their time, built many fine custom homes in and around Logansport. The company has remained in family hands for three generations and is presently operated by two of her grandsons.

Neva was a member of St. James Lutheran Church in Logansport.

She was an expert bridge player and enjoyed teaching others how to play bridge. She also enjoyed square dancing after she moved to Florida.

Surviving are one daughter, Mary Hillstrom, Oakdale, Minn.; one son, Jack Steinberger, Logansport; four granddaughters, Ann Mott, St. Paul, Minn., Dr. Jenny Hillstrom, Maine, Beth Hampshire, Logansport, and Carla Steinberger, Mount Dora, Fla.; four grandsons, Jim Steinberger, Tom Steinberger and Don Steinberger, all of Logansport, and Bob Steinberger, Parker, Colo.; 10 great-grandchildren, Jessica, Tana, Cole and Halle Steinberger, and Jill and Dustin Hampshire, all of Logansport, Kayleigh Steinberger, Flora, Sara Steinberger, Madison, Wis., Chase Steinberger, Parker, Colo., and Charles Mott, St. Paul, Minn.

One sister, Helen Frushour; one brother-in-law, Herb Frushour; and one infant grandson, William Steinberger, preceded in death.

Pastor Marvin Hinkle will officiate at the services.

Friends may call one hour before the services in the church.

Memorial contributions may be made to a charity of choice.

Kroegeer Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
