

John G. Banta

John G. Banta, 74, a retired Pennsylvania railroad employee died of a heart attack at 8:30 am Saturday at his home on route 4. He was preparing to butcher a beef at the barn on his farm when he was stricken.

Born in Carroll county on July 29, 1882, he was the sone of John and Margaret (Watson) Banta. The deceased was a member of the Memorial Christian Chapel church. Survivors include his wife, Maggie, a daughter, Mrs. Irene Roller, route 4; four grandchildren, three great grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Dollie Sailors, route 2.

The body is at the McCloskey-Hamilton chapel where friends may call after 1 pm Sunday. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Logansport Pharos Tribune - Sat., 10/13/1956