CITY NEWS

THE NEW SOUTH.

Michael Strogoff Friday evening. An inch of snow fell last night.

Money Plenty and Everything on the Boom at Chattanooga.

Get your underwear at the Trade Palace clearance sale.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 24, '87. Editor Phoros--By way of preface it may not be amiss to say in this correspondence that I have been in Chattanooga a month, and I have found the stories about the marvelous growth of this city and the r-p-d building up of the south no myth.

Get a handkerchief at the bargain sale tomorrow at the Trade Palace.

It they were, I would say so. Chattanooga as a commercial and industrial center is one of the most important cities of the south.

Miss O'Donald and Mrs. Annie Patter, of Peru, are visiting Mrs. Charles O'Donald.

In 1878 the population of Chattanooga was 11,488. Now there are more than 20,000 souls within the corporate limits.

Mrs. F. M. Shipley and Miss Lou Clouse, of Hoovers, are visiting friends in the city.

The meeting of the foreign missionary society of the ladies of the Baptist church, will be held at the parlour, on Seventh street, to-morrow afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Rev. J. J. Parcell will preach at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, the revival meeting being still in continuance.

Several Logansport young men are said to be suffering from an affection of the heart. Although in many cases the affection is very severe, and keeps them in high fever, they decline to consult either allopathy or homoeopathy for relief. They will apply to the parson when they can no longer stand it.

Mr. J. M. McNamara, business manager for J. H. Haverty's industrial company, was in the city to-day arranging for the appearance of the company at the opera house on the evening of February 4th.

One thousand pieces of embroidered silvers to-morrow at the Trade Palace bargain sale to commence at 10 o'clock a. m. Remember none of the bargains at cut prices sold before 10 o'clock. All indign blue-prints and all others at 5 cents per yard at this sale also a large lot of muslins quantities limited. Be sure and get to before 4 o'clock as sale closes at that time secure a bed spread cheap at this sale.

Mrs. John Hillman, wife of the Phoros to-day and stated that the report that her husband had been giving her from $5 to $7 per week of his wages was false. According to her story she has only received from him in the past month two dollars in money and about five dollars worth of groceries. All right, Mrs. Hillman, the Phoros will take your word for it. We have no desire to further discuss the trouble between you and your husband, so take it.

The movement for closing the place of business at a reasonably early hour ought to meet the hearty support of citizens generally. There is no class whose work is more laborious or confining than that of men and women employed in stores. The additional hours or so of leisure, each day, would be an inestimable boon to them. Customers should facilitate matters by making their purchases earlier, and render it unnecessary to keep open in the evening. On the other hand, in the saving of light and fuel, the employer would lose little or nothing by the change. It is, for many reasons, worth trying, at least.

The Peoria Transcript thus speaks of the play to be presented at the opera house Friday evening: "Saidon has it been the pressure of a Peoria audience to witness as fine a play as 'Michael Strogoff' proved to be last night. The house was crowded, and the play throughout was greeted with enthusiastic applause. Aside from the spectacular portions, in which is a fine ballet, the play is long, taking nearly three hours, but the great audience sat through it all, and enjoyed it hugely. The characters of the two newspaper reporters were well sustained, and sufficed to keep the audience in a roar when they appeared. The wonder in regard to the drama is how so much of a cast and so much scenery can be carried about the country under one management. Many of the audience last night were most agreeably disappointed, especially those who had formed the idea that this drama was chiefly of a spectacular order."
