

LESTER J. GAMBEE

PERU Lester J. Gambée, 63 of Chicago, formerly of Peru, died in his home Sunday morning after a two-month illness.

He had lived in Chicago for four years, moving there from Peru. He was employed as foreman at the Royal Continental Box Co.

Born April 28, 1904 at Atwood, he was the son of James and Isabel (Elder) Gambée. 19 MAR 1968 p. 11

His first marriage was to Mildred Norris in 1928. He was married to Majorie Kantzer in 1951 and later to Chloe Blackman.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Roland Sullivan, R. R. 1, Denver; Mrs. Jack Andrews, South Bend; three stepsons, Kenneth Blackman, Urbana; Ronald and Robert Blackman, Peru; three step-daughters, Mrs. Richard Kay, Lancaster, N.H.; Mrs. James McDowell, Whiting; and Mrs. Larry Chalos, Hammond; a sister, Mrs. C. L. Hileman, Peru, and seven step-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 1:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Drake-Flowers Chapel with the Rev. Robert Blake officiating. Burial will be in the Mount Hope Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home at any time.